

Leslie McCallum, B. Comm, MSW, RSW, PhD Candidate

Leslie is a Doctoral Candidate at the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto. Her research is on understanding the experiences of adults in midlife living with anorexia nervosa. She has been Group Facilitator at Sheena's Place; was a member of Binge Eating Disorder Association's Board of Directors, a national organization in the US; and was a contributor to the Weight Discrimination Stakeholders' Group that provided direction to the White House on the 'Let's Move' initiative.

Leslie is a member of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers, the Ontario Association of Social Workers, the Eating Disorder Association of Canada, and the International Academy of Eating Disorders.